

The Accounting Cycle

Rap It, Talk It, Sing It, Tell It, Rhyme It

As a promotion for our school's Business Department and the Accounting I course, you have been chosen to create a creative performance using your creative writing skills and the enhanced accounting knowledge of the accounting cycle for the end of a fiscal period of a service business. Groups of 3 creative minds will work together for this assignment. All performances will be recorded and combined to create a video.

Before beginning project, you should be able to:

- Identify the adjusting entries that play an important role in the accounting cycle.
- Journalize closing entries.
- Journalize adjusting entries.
- Prepare post-closing trial balance for a service business

Option I - Poetry

Create and recite Poem explaining the importance and details of the accounting cycle

Requirements:

-
-

Option II - Short-Story

Create and recite a Short-Story explaining the importance and details of the accounting cycle

Requirements:

- Characters

Option III - Commercial

Create and perform a commercial explaining the importance and details of the accounting cycle

Requirements:

- Script
- Music

Option IV - Rap

Create a rap or song and give a performance explaining the importance and details of the accounting cycle.

Requirements: