

NAME _____

Job Workshop Ice Breakers

Here are 25 activities you may encounter during a job search. At the signal to begin, move around the room, find individuals who have experienced these activities, and ask them to sign their names in the space next to the activity. Try to get as many of the activities signed as possible. At the signal to stop, sit down.

Attended other workshops. _____

Networked with other groups. _____

Went to an informational interview. _____

Did not “click” with an interviewer _____

The job at an interview did not seem like the job you applied for. _____

Even before you started an interview, you knew this was where you wanted to work. _____

Even before you started the interview, you knew this was where you did not want to work. _____

Was referred to a job by a friend. _____

Was referred to a job by a relative. _____

Did not revise resume for this job search. _____

Got an interview and a job from a newspaper advertisement. _____

Got a referral to an interview from the Employment Service and / or Career Center. _____

Felt discouraged about the job search process from the beginning. _____

Felt you were discriminated against in an interview. _____

Were asked illegal questions during an interview. _____

Have worked in a country outside of the U.S. _____

Have developed a career plan. _____

Have sought the advice of a professional career counselor. _____

Have been a displaced worker or homemaker. _____

Know the difference between a job and a career. _____

Have had more than three jobs in the last five years. _____