

Banking

Group Research Activity

Create a brochure in MS Publisher on one of the following types of deposit institutions:

1. Commercial Banks
2. Savings & Loan Associations
3. Mutual Banks
4. Credit Unions

Each group will research and compare at least three different companies from the above assigned institution type to determine the:

- ❖ Services & costs offered at each institution
- ❖ Advantages
- ❖ Disadvantages

*Each group should basically answer: “Which financial institution is right for my needs?” The group will present its findings to the class in the form of a brochure using MS Publisher.
